This workshop for couple therapists will teach a way to shift couples from the conflict that brings them into treatment to genuine intimacy. After a brief explanation of the attachment theory in which it is grounded, Lee will teach principles and demonstrate interventions using role-play volunteers.

Learning Objectives:

Participants will be able to:

1. Describe the four basic attachment styles.
2. Identify two of those styles can manifest in intimate relationships.
3. Demonstrate an effective intervention in a couples conflict.
